

1. Part-time studies: first-cycle programme

1.1. Programme: Administration

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity exam in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- The basis for the recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics – lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, social studies.

1.2. Programme: Security and law

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity exam in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- The basis for the recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics – lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, social studies.

1.3. Programme: Economics

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- geography, history, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: geography, history, mathematics, social studies - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam from one subject to choose from the following: geography, history, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: geography, history, mathematics – basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam in one subject of choice from the following: geography, history, mathematics - lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- recruitment is based on a result/grade in one subject of choice from the following: geography, history, mathematics, social studies.

1.4. Programme: Criminology

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity exam in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- The basis for the recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics – lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, social studies.

1.5. Programme: Pedagogy in social and educational work

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- any modern foreign language, Polish

language. Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language.

If no modern foreign language test was taken in the maturity examination, another subject will be taken into account on the maturity exam, indicated by the candidate.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination in any modern foreign language and Polish language - lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from any modern foreign language and Polish language.

In the absence of a result/assessment from the Polish language, the candidate takes an oral exam from the Polish language.

1.6. Programme: Social rehabilitation pedagogy

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- any modern foreign language, Polish language. Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language;

If no modern foreign language test was taken in the maturity examination, another subject will be taken into account on the maturity exam, indicated by the candidate.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination in any modern foreign language and Polish language - lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from any modern foreign language and Polish language.

In the absence of a result/assessment from the Polish language, the candidate takes an oral exam from the Polish language.

1.7. Programme: Social work

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- any modern foreign language, Polish language.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language.

If no modern foreign language test was taken in the maturity examination, another subject will be taken into account on the maturity exam indicated by the candidate.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination in any modern foreign language and Polish language - lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from any modern foreign language and Polish language.

In the absence of a result/assessment from the Polish language, the candidate takes an oral exam from the Polish language.

1.8. Programme: Law and taxes in business

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity exam in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- The basis for the recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics – lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, social studies.

1.9. Programme: Management

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- geography, history, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: geography, history, mathematics, social studies - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam from one subject to choose from the following: geography, history, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: geography, history, mathematics - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam in one subject of choice from the following: geography, history, mathematics - lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- recruitment is based on a result/grade in one subject of choice from the following: geography, history, mathematics, social studies.

2. Part-time studies: long-cycle master's studies

2.1. Programme: Law

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity exam in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics, social studies.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- recruitment is based on the result of the maturity examination in one subject of choice from the following: history, Latin, Polish, mathematics - basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- The basis for the recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, Polish language, mathematics – lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from one subject to choose from the following: history, Latin, social studies.

2.2. Pre-school and early childhood pedagogy

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- any modern foreign language, Polish language. Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language.

If no modern foreign language test was taken in the maturity examination, another subject will be taken into account on the maturity exam indicated by the candidate.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination in any modern foreign language and Polish language - lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from any modern foreign language and Polish language.

In the absence of a result/assessment the Polish language, the candidate takes an oral exam from the Polish language.

2.3. Special needs pedagogy

Subjects taken into account in the admission procedure:

- any modern foreign language, Polish language.

Candidates who have passed the new (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the old (baccalaureate) maturity examination:

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity exam from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language.

If no modern foreign language test was taken in the maturity examination, another subject will be taken into account on the maturity exam indicated by the candidate.

Candidates who have passed the European Baccalaureate (EB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination from any modern foreign language and from the Polish language – the basic or extended level.

Candidates who have passed the International Baccalaureate (IB):

- the basis for recruitment is the result of the maturity examination in any modern foreign language and Polish language - lower (standard) level (SL) or higher level (HL).

Candidates holding a document obtained abroad, entitling them to study:

- the basis for recruitment is the result/assessment from any modern foreign language and Polish language.

In the absence of a result/assessment from the Polish language, the candidate takes an oral exam from the Polish language.

3. Part-time studies: second-cycle studies

3.1. Programme: Administration

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the grade awarded on the diploma of completion of a first-cycle programme (second-cycle programme or long-cycle master's programme) in a subject belonging to the humanities or social sciences,
- arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

A mandatory interview for candidates with a bachelor's degree, engineer's degree, master's degree or equivalent degree in a field other than humanities or social sciences.

3.2. Programme: Security and law

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the grade awarded on the diploma of completion of a first-cycle programme (second-cycle programme or long-cycle master's programme) in a subject belonging to the humanities or social sciences,
- arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

Mandatory interview for candidates with a bachelor's degree, an engineer, master or equivalent degree in a field other than humanities or social sciences.

3.3. Programme: Tax advisory and revenue administration

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the mark awarded on the diploma of completion of a first-cycle programme (second-cycle programme or long-cycle master's programme) in a subject belonging to the humanities or social sciences,
- arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

A mandatory interview for candidates with a bachelor's degree, engineer's degree, master's degree or equivalent degree in a field other than humanities or social sciences.

3.4. Programme: Economics

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the grade on the first-cycle diploma (second-cycle diploma or long-cycle master's degree),
- arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

Candidates who do not have the following subjects in their diploma supplement (completed course of study): microeconomics I and II, mathematics, econometrics I, will be required to complete these courses during their first year of study.

3.5. Programme: Criminology

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the grade awarded on the diploma of completion of a first-cycle programme (second-cycle programme or long-cycle master's programme) in a subject belonging to the humanities or social sciences,
- arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

Mandatory interview for candidates with a bachelor's degree, an engineer, master or equivalent degree in a field other than humanities or social sciences.

3.6. Programme: Pedagogy in social and educational work

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the grade awarded on the diploma of completion of a first-cycle programme (second-cycle programme or long-cycle master's programme) in a subject belonging to the humanities or social sciences,
- the arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

3.7. Programme: Social rehabilitation pedagogy

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the grade awarded on the diploma of completion of a first-cycle programme (second-cycle programme or long-cycle master's programme) in a subject belonging to the humanities or social sciences,
- arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

3.8. Programme: Social work

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the grade awarded on the diploma of completion of a first-cycle programme (second-cycle programme or long-cycle master's programme) in a subject belonging to the humanities or social sciences,
- arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

3.9. Programme: Management

The following will be taken into account in the admission procedure:

- the grade on the first-cycle diploma (second-cycle diploma or long-cycle master's degree),
- arithmetic mean of the grades from the studies.

Candidates who do not have the subjects: Fundamentals of Management and Marketing in their Diploma Supplement (completed course of study) will be required to complete these during their first year of study.